

Cochise County Judicial System

Policy Title: Electronic Communications

Policy Number: 3001

Effective: March 1, 2021

Last Reviewed/Updated: February 22, 2021

“Electronic communication” means, but is not limited to, electronic mail (email), Internet services, voice mail, and facsimile messages that are sent or received by judicial officers and employees, and other authorized users, and the network resources over which such communications are transmitted.

Employees shall adhere to Arizona Code of Judicial Administration, Section 1-503: Electronic Communications and Cochise County Acceptable Use Policy Number 1800.

Violations of these policies will result in disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal.
