Think they really need to address the segment of the population other than the retirees. We are retirees. But if the rest of the populace is not addressed sufficiently, one day we will look up and there won't be anyone there to carry on.....

Work with the Army/Fed Gov to construct a multi-use path, separate from the roadway, from Ft. Huachuca main gate to the intersection of Irwin St. and Hatfield St., and connect it to existing paths in Sierra Vista. Even if feds can't afford to do it alone, this will provide the greatest possible return on investment due to huge number of employees that work in or near Greely Hall. Route is now too dangerous. It discourages use of human-powered transportation to go to work.

As with any PLAN it is just a plan; as such this PLAN should have at minimum a review annually; changed to reflect current need until implementation. Once implementation is initiated, documentation of progress and variance from the PLAN needs to be kept. Most of all regular public reporting needs to be provided. My suggestion would be to annually report to the public any and all progress afforded by the plan. Not a comprehensive detail review each year, rather a cursory review so as to provide a progress report. This would allow a better picture of the plan and its value. Thank you for the opportunity...

Yes, I believe the county needs to address and plan for potential wildfires. Property owners are not cleaning up weeds & tall grass, scrub growth, and dead trees creating a high potential for destructive wild fires. I think the county should adopt a policy that encourages property owners to reduce their property's potential for spreading wildfires to surrounding areas especially where they are located near major highways and roads. The Monument Fire is a good example of how unmaintained properties near highways burned and spread wildfire to their neighbors and adjacent properties causing severe disruption of traffic and transportation as well as hardships to the community. Find a way to get this kind of information out to the residents of the county, perhaps in newspapers with a tear out page they could send in with their opinions or maybe make copies and distribute them at certain locations. I didn't know about this until I received this email. I believe this could be the reason only 73 people have responded. Also make sure the water problems that are sure to come will be controlled by the county, not the federal government or any of their agencies or any of these water rights groups. The county needs to have the last word on water and incorporate it into its plans. Fight anyone that tries to do otherwise.

This may not answer question 6, but I want to say that I've lived in Sierra Vista for 4 years. It's a very nice city, and I'd like to keep it that way with a BALANCE between development and protection of open space. It won't be a pleasant city if development is allowed to expand unabated. Please plan to save pockets of open space for wildlife and people.

I recommend that a correction be accomplished on page 24, Section J. Transportation Element, Policies, item d., the beginning of the second sentence should be "Much" instead of "Must". Although the following comments are not direct suggestions for the Comprehensive Plan, they are related. I would like to see the county limit new category A, B, and C designation of lands and severely restrict commercial development to currently existing city limits. I would also like to suggest that the county owned property that houses the new water conservation recharge project behind and to the west of the Palominas school be opened pedestrian, bicycle, and equine traffic outside of the recharge development, particularly the area closest to S. Cana St. I would also like to suggest the same for the county owned property bordered by Palominas Rd. and Three Canyons Rd. once the grazing rights have expired.

Light industry is a revenue and job builder. If it can be managed in a 'green' way, I would encourage that kind of development. I would also support greater recycling efforts and the possibility of local recycling industry/infrastructure..., glass in particular to help offset transfer/transportation expenses, and again support job development. We can't depend on the Fort and prisons forever.

I would like to have access online to things like Cochise County engineering documents. Specifically, the engineering docs that feed FEMA flood plain determination. My flood insurance has increased from 300.00 to 1,100.00 annually over the past 12 years. This discourages growth and development in Cochise County, and also drives down values and revenues. The County Comprehensive plan should include examining and challenging FEMA floodplain determination. Also, lose the term comprehensive and make it a strategic plan. Too many things are "hidden" in comprehensive documents or initiatives.

I have lived here since 1980. I no longer feel totally safe when I leave the city. I know property owners that live outside the city that are always insecure. Until that is fixed, Growth in the county will be limited. Many of my friends have bought property in the county from realtors that did not inform them of the turmoil out there. I think that a lot of that county development property is being bought by people from out of state un-aware of just what they are getting into. Many rural residents are slowly becoming preppers. Building their own defensive networks. Adding to the tension.

Fight EPA; FIGHT USFS closures of Huachuca Mountains to vehicular traffic and shooting; they never finished the Travel Management Plan; take back control of our forests as Apache BOS has done; less regulation - we didn't have 'building codes' until recently-our home was built in 1993 and it is just fine; regulation restricts personal choice and growth; County charter (determined by citizens, BOS, employees) versus being governed by state law. The plan should be on the ballot and any projects requiring funds should be separately voted on along with costs and funding source(s)

I don't know how I can really provide any decent, useful feedback since it is a technical document which requires some better understanding of these topics than I have. I think this is a tech doc written by and for techies. Third, what I can read, seems hugely vague. Ok, it's a PLAN, but "we should try to .." what authority if any does this doc have to actually regulate Sierra Vista from gobbling up more of Moson Road to get a tax base. Lastly, the problem with Cochise County we have limited water to keep building. Period. How will this Plan address urban sprawl from Sierra Vista (example: Hospital) That monstrosity alone strains the infrastructure like transport, sewage, water, etc. No one seems to be planning there.

Ratio of private land to government land is way to small. More land should be available to the private sector to purchase, utilize, or develop. Earth dams or other ways to catch excessive water runoff during monsoons should be allow to develop ponds for recreation, agricultural purposes, to allow water table recharge and to mitigate excessive flooding. County should look at feasibility of bringing CAP water to Cochise County, especially since Rosemont has estended and lifted the CAP water over the mountain to its location north of Sonoita. That could help ensure water adequacy for the upper San Pedro watershed area and support smart development.

Bring other industries into the county and stop our "reliance" (and subsequent panic attacks) about what's going on/not going on with "the fort". Plenty of us have nothing to do with the fort. The county enclaves in the City are blight, I find that the owners of B&B do not care for any of thier holdings and it is a continual health/fire issue on 6th Place and throughout the enclaves. There needs to be better policing and blight control as seen by the many issues that have come up recently. Had blight control and evaluations of property been done, I believe many community neglect and saftey issues could be avoided. HAVEN'T READ THE PLAN SO DIDN'T ANSWER QUESTION 5

Section F's language addressing use of public lands must include not only farmers and ranchers but also the concerns and views of outdoor enthusiasts and conservationists. We are part of the community and want to protect the wildlife and their natural habitats.

9/11/2014 12:07 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

I don't like the tone of the "other Federal Lands" section. It sounds like the county wants to fight the federal government over wildlife and wild lands protection--that it will protect the rich ranching and farming interests. I don't agree with that at all.

9/11/2014 12:06 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

My main concern of late is word of the possibility of fracking in the Sulphur Springs Valley and mining in the Dragons and the Santa Ritas. I am vehemently opposed to the use of the land for things other than farming and ranching... and even that, not in a way that gives a foothold to corporations or massive industrial ventures. Let's not sell out our precious land and natural resources to corporate interests.

There is balance in most sections of the Cochise County Comprehensive Plan, with the exception of Section F on the Federal Government Coordination Element. Section F reads as if public lands serve only ranchers and farmers. However, they belong to all Americans. The views of outdoor recreation enthusiasts and conservation-minded citizens are largely ignored in Section F.

9/11/2014 8:48 AM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

The county really needs to address infrastructure as many roads and bridges in this area are in disrepair. My other serious concern is that of border security and exactly what the county plans to do, work with, or solicit from the federal government, the state or other agencies. This issue is a big one as some of my friends have recently left this area because of it and I am thinking of doing the same myself. This issue has a big impact on the status of this county as related to crimes and destruction by illegals. Bet no one has considered that subject because retailers are too worried about securing that dollar!

It is my opinion that Cochise County needs to make more of an effort to work with our government to make sure that Ft. Huachuca is not on the list for closure. Sierra Vista and surrounding towns benefit from the fort being here in our county. If the fort is closed the future for Sierra Vista and other towns will shut down and no one will have a future in living here.

Some growth is good, but massive plans like Castle & Cooke's Tribute have no business in a rural desert area. There's not enough water, no matter what "studies" have shown. Aside from the water issue, the traffic and additional residents such a development would bring would definitely reduce our small town atmosphere. If I wanted to live in Tucson, I'd move there. I think towns should promote developers utilizing infill if they need to make yet more money.

Rural land development should not be restricted within it's zoning limitations. Light pollution will be a future major problem and a form of penalty should be established. Federal policies of land use/conservation should be approvable by Cochise County. Retention/detention of creeks and washes by private property owners should be expanded upon and possible a credit system like water use credits should be developed. People have achieved the status of being more important than cows. The onus for fencing should be on the ranchers, not the civilian population. Reverse the hundred year old laws. Require and support bringing broadband Internet to all rural residents. Subsidize, or even pay for Wi-fi or cable to be upgraded such that desert residents can afford higher quality service. (My telecommunications costs (internet, and phone) are over $120/month on $1,000 SS /month. That is way out of proportion to what it should be. And this is for less than 1MB/sec. Try to get help from corporate entities such as Google, or Cisco. Force electrical utilities to remove the difficulties for owners with solar set-ups to sell back electricity to the grid. (encourage residents to use solar). Most importantly.....PREVENT FRACKING UNTIL PROVEN SAFE !!!!! There is more. Contact me if you want to hear it (sss@theriver.com Dr. Stephen Sklarow)

I think the County, along with the cities in it, need to be more aggressive in marketing the outdoor recreation we have here, especially bicycling and dark skies. We have some of the best cycling, amateur astronomy, and birding areas in the entire country. We should start a Rails to Trails process for the abandoned railroad right of way from Benson to Bisbee. Any new road construction should include shoulders safe for cycling and emergency vehicle use. Keep rumble strips next to lane marking stripes. We should resist efforts to re-introduce the Mexican grey wolf into areas in the county. The habitat to support them just doesn't exist anymore, in my opinion.

We have a house in Sunizona we have been trying to sell. It is in the wrong location. If it were in Sierra Vista, it would sell for $400,000 with 5 bedrooms, etc. One problem we face in Sunizona is that the big farmers have come in and sunk deep wells which end up siphoning our water out of our wells. We need to address that problem quickly. Sunizona is a wonderful rural community with great views, but no real job potential.

9/10/2014 5:13 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

I believe the ultimate total population, considering availablily of water in particular, should be determined (obviously this would be based on average family use of water so as to be able to compare that number to a reasonable, safe amount that can be replenished based on study of historical rainfall. Once that and factors such as traffic, pollution, and aesthetics are considered, the County should be zoned so as to allow only a given number of citizens(4 family members? per housing unit for example) and strict zoning should be applied and enforced. We have a wonderful opportunity to preserve what nature has provided and yet, add reasonable numbers of more population over time. Be brave! Be nurturing. Set an emample of what can be done. Do not bow to $$$

Growth is ok, but mining for example should be looked at carefully (along with other industries). The benefits needs to be weighted against the impact that it would cause. I am not talking about recreational miner. Another example is we need to look at the community around Fort Huachuca and see what we can improve. That may let the Army know that the community is able to support the soldiers station there.

Cannot stress enough the importance of well-planned growth in areas where municipal zoning is not in force. "Wildcat" subdivisions and small development without good planning can be very detrimental (see outside Tucson for examples). Having decrepit trailers next to $400K homes is not in anyone's best interests. AND making sure that adequate water for projected growth is available by using science and NOT bending to developer's will. Growth for growth's sake and thinking that any and all growth is good is 20th century thinking, and not what Cochise County needs going into the future. Thank you.

The established of large solar farms will have a major impact on land use and detract from the from what is trying to be accomplished in the plan. Also you indicate that plans (page 9) would be updated but fail to indicate when and how often (yearly or bi-yearly). The plan does not flow, you have to wait till the end of the plan to find out what A-D communities are. Also did not read how the county plans to coordinate with adjoining counties to ensure their plan and ours would help each other to achieve unified goals.

9/10/2014 4:14 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

The problem with comprehensive or general plans is that they tend to be too general and too comprehensive. I understand the need for guiding principles but the devil is always in the detail and that is when people will engage. I live in the county outside the City of Sierra Vista. The City controls everything in the City and even has power in areas outside the City limits. Many of us never care to be in the City of Sierra Vista and have no use for them. Their policy decisions directly impact property owners outside the City limits. Their relationship with developers and desire for growth and tax dollars motivates them in ways not in the best interest of adjacent property owners. The Tribute development is one of many examples of how the City of Sierra Vista does what it wants to the detriment of other county residents. Adjacent property owners should have more power to veto development which they do not approve. If the City of Sierra Vista wants a say in what happens in the county we want a say in what they do to us.

1. Please maintain current policy of No Light Pollution. Keep our rural skies Dark. 2. Fix rural dirt roads to prevent dust pollution. This would be in keeping with AZ statutes on dust pollution. 3. While growth is always important to an area's economic survival, what draws people to Cochise County is its smallness and rural nature. If we lose that, then we lose the focus of this county and, ultimately, revenues. 4. In the development of renewable energies, we must also be vigilant about preventing powerful electro-magnetic fields (EMFs) that are harmful to the health of the population. One of the joys of living in a rural area is that we are generally away from the powerful ill effects of EMFs. Please keep it that way.

First, I'd like to thank the County Board of Supervisors for making an effort to use technology to enable the conversation with its citizens - although I do want to acknowledge that I did not receive this survey directly from the county and would not have known of its existence had another citizen not forwarded it to me. This survey is the first time I have EVER received information from the county government. I strongly recommend and request that you engage the citizenry more often through these surveys and electronic distribution of information pertinent to citizens of the county. This should include proactive advisement of upcoming meetings, the agenda of those meetings and some basic explanation of agenda items so citizens can determine how they should involve themselves - rather than just putting it on some obscure calendar in a less than adequate attempt to follow the Open Meeting Law. The county should attempt to grow citizen participation in all phases of plans and policy development and governance. Therefore I strongly recommend that growth of citizen participation in County government should be an element of the plan and the county should undertake methods to do so and the results of those efforts. The electronic means we enjoy today make this tremendously more doable and the County is not at all maximizing the use of readily available Information Technology to support information sharing and decision making. In all honesty, all too often, it appears that the county government attempts to govern with as little input as possible from the citizenry and all too often using poor advice from the county attorney's office. Thank you for allowing me to submit this input.

Cochise county is one of the last vestiges of Americana. Let the cities grow, if they want, but limit growth where it does not infringe on the rights and privileges of others who have lived here for generations. Eminent domain should not be used by developers just to force people from their homes so that more development can take place. Limit development to areas that are not already occupied.

I would like to see infrastructure - paving, sidewalks, street lighting, in the Fry Townsite area - specifically, North Canyon Drive and Theatre Drive. These two streets are unsafe for the children who must use them to get to Carmichael Elementary School. I understand that responsibility is "split" between Cochise County and the City of Sierra Vista, regarding these areas, however, I believe that more energetic cooperation between the two will benefit the citizens living in the area. There also needs to be more vigorous enforcement of building codes in this area and the many derelict buildings (old mobile homes) removed, for both health and safety reasons.

Water conservation - I have participated in the hot water on demand and the toilet program, and appreciate them. However, I do not think that these programs provide sufficient motivation to conserve. The biggest incentive is individual cost. I pay about 2/3 less for water here compared to costs experienced in Maryland where water is much more available. Recommend provisions exist to allow for higher costs to increase conservation.

Yes, I am VERY concerned that evidently NO work has been done to plan an alternate route around the intersection of the by-pass and Hwy 90. THREE times we have had spectacular accidents at this intersection and DPS has been TOTALLY CALLOUS when it comes to allowing people thru, telling traffic to go back thru Tombstone. Meanwhile there sits a nearby unused road on Ft. Huachuca property. PLEASE co-ordinate with the Army and allow for the dirt road that weaves alongside this intersection to be used in an emergency. BTW, I have voiced this concern three times and I see nothing has been done. Don't take no for an answer from the Army. And finally, while it may not be specifically County officials realm, I note that rural New Mexico (Hatch and Columbus) have been seriously involved in getting a Wind Farm, a Solar Park, and a algae biodiesel facility. Whichever county this is (I think it may be Hidalgo) has left us in the dust on future energy. That's mighty SAD considering that their own assets are probably a fraction of our own. Perhaps we can see what might be done here? Thank you for the opportunity to respond. Eldon H. Cook pensc@cox.net

Get away from the golden egg model of all fort all the time and embrace clean renewable energy via solar light industry. Resist the destructive partisans in Phoenix (and elsewhere in the state) and promote and incentivise installation of solar banks here in Cochise County, both residential and commercial. The climate could not be better for solar generation. We could and should lead the nation in solar generation right here at home. We would rightly reduce prototypical government welfare dependence in the county by diversifying and thereby lessening our dependance on the fort and becoming more self reliant to boot. It is a win win if we have the integrity to push against imperious corporate interests.

Roads, especially in developing cities, such as Sierra Vista need to be planned with an eye for future growth. Hwy 92 is terrible and more traffic lights make the problem worse, not better. The frontage roads started on the northern end were a great idea, but were not continued. Through roads such as BST and the Bypass are great but more traffic lights defies the purpose of having a through road. Moson should be widened to accommodate through traffic to help divert away from Hwy 92. Hwy 90 East has a bottleneck west of Moson that should also be widened to accommodate through traffic. Economic development to diversify away from our over-dependence on Ft. Huachuca should be encouraged. The new hospital is a great start, but much more needs to be done. Subsidizing the proliferation of alternative and/or renewable energy sources should also be encouraged. I have no problem with wind farms, as long as they are situated so as not to destroy the natural beauty of our mountains. Underground power should also be pursued to eliminate the poles and wires which get in the way of enjoying this same natural beauty. I also support recharge efforts for the aquifer, but not rationing or restricting water supply or selling our water outside of our County. Removing Cottonwood trees is also a good way to help preserve our water supply. Thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Density bonuses should be removed. It is to the developers best interest to cluster the houses so there is no need to give a bonus. That only increases the density thereby using more facilities. New private wells and sewer septic systems need to be severely curtailed, and existing private water and septic systems intensively managed and monitored.

9/10/2014 1:35 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

No where in the water conservation area did you talk about monitoring wells. I feel that has to be part of this plan. Why should I who live in a subdivision have to conserve when you have no control over people with individual wells. They can use as much as they desire and there is not oversight. This is really a necessary part of water conservation.

As indicated in the plan ,the increase in commercial truck traffic is impacting rural roads and should be restricted to state and interstate routes. The use of Dragoon Rd and possibly other county roads with restricted load limits by overweight semi traffic is severely impacting the quality of these local traffic corridors ( washboarding and curb crumbling)

On item three relative to growing except in areas where infrastructure does not exists...if the developer is willing and able to provide the infrastructure with minimal support by the County, the project should be considered. On item four, being limited to three selections is unrealistic. That is, three selections does not provide enough information given the uniqueness, diversity, and varied interest of the residents of Cochise County and the geoscience aspect of the environment. As a both a diverse community and region we can accommodate much more because all of this can be targeted using both public and private funds.

Much of section F on Federal Government Coordination / Other Federal Lands is worded very negatively. It is clear from this plan that you are positioning the county to be against wilderness designations, other designations, introduced/endangered species ... in this you do not represent me or my household. F.3.b.ii says "No special designations or management plan should be proposed until it is determined and substantiated by reproducible scientific data, that there is a need for the designation, that protections cannot be provided by well-planned and managed development..." so who is the arbiter of what is "well-planned and managed development"? F.3.d.iv re: access to water facilities on p 17 could be renamed the "screw Beatty" clause. There are better ways to phrase passages in this section and you have received other suggestions, and have already chosen to dismiss those out of hand. How disappointing.

It is imperative that our county commission keep the citizens informed with all that is being considered, in the works, and progress made with past decisions. WE all need to work together as a community of practice and ensure that vital interests are protected, respected, and safeguarded. We cannot allow external influences to dictate the direction of the county if it conflicts with the taxpayers affected. We also need to try and keep taxes from rising beyond the median income of those in the county, but should be in consideration of all and not just some or a few. Thanks for the service thus far.

Bring in quality not quantity. Make sure whatever you build, fund or support is of the highest quality. Don't go to the lowest bidder or builder. Repairs only cost the tax payer's more and anger and public. One suggestion on low income housing. Offer classes or opportunities for individuals to learn how to upkeep a property. If they aren't trained or care the property will fall to disrepair and nothing will have been created. Maybe a pairing of families or disable on a duplex property. That way they could share chores such as landscaping and over maintenance. All must work for the common good no free rides.

As people in the country have well share agreements, if folks live on unimproved roads, they should also be bound by a road maintenance agreement, whereby everyone who lives on that road has to put an agreed upon amount in an account for road repairs. If they can't afford to do that, then they have no business buying property on unimproved roads that the country does not maintain. Also, the county needs to take over more of the rural road maintenance in the more populated parts of the county where dirt roads are the only way to get in and out of homes.

Most of the elderly folks who want to "retain the rural feeling" of Cochise county won't be around when any of the measures are implemented. From the Plan: "Introduced, Threatened, Endangered and Sensitive Species, Recovery Plans, Experimental Populations and Related Guidelines and Protocols i. These designations or reintroductions could grow beyond boundaries and scope and may result in detrimental effects on the area's economy, lifestyles, cultures, and heritage." Given the fact that development of towns in the county and rational use of water have already 'grown beyond boundaries and scope' I don't agree with this clause. Also, the loss of 35,000 acres of habitat in the Huachucas and the potential loss of more due to fire, suggests that Threatened status categories are likely to become even more important, not less so.

There's nothing I'm missing in Sierra Vista except decent restaurants (I'm spoiled: I am originally from San Francisco). And the only way you get those is with a more upscale demographic--which would require either affluent retirees or attracting businesses that pay big salaries, or both. But those should be desiderata in any case. Sierra Vista should try to make itself into hub for quality semi-urban living. Hospital expansion helps, for example. (For how many years did this town have 1--count'em one--gastroenterologist?). As you may have figured out, I'm a 76 year old retiree, and my desires may not square with community planning goals that are family oriented. Preserving Cochise County's rural character is great so long as it's good for the tax base.

9/10/2014 12:27 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

County should carve out tax-free zones and subsidize industry with tax subsidies. The only way to grow is to bring in people. All growth, especially Master planned communities, should take place only within existing incorporated city boundaries, eg. Benson, Sierra Vista, Willcox, NOT outside those areas that crave development. The surrounding communities are rural to small town. People live there because of that space/ atmosphere. To insert a 'community' would negatively impact space, noise levels, light levels, resource use, roads. Sub-divisions must stay within incorporated towns, not spread out through the county. Highway 80 is already extremely busy and is essentially a neighborhood street for the unincorporated town of St. David. Transportation expansion on highway 80 would be a huge negative and dangerous impact upon citizens in the unincorporated area. Residents desire dark skies, quiet and a slower pace of life that encompasses agriculture complete with lots of animals and all their accompanying attributes. Over crowded roads impacts the pace and peace and safety that residents seek and expect.

zoning is a mess. There are so many exceptions, variances, exceptions to the exceptions, a land/homeowner needs to retain a law firm to keep from being victimized by this archaic "system". It seems to be more dependent on which clerk you talk to than any real concrete rules or regulations. Hey, you wanted opinions,lol.

Issues that affect more than 80% of the residents should be voted on before implementation. Entertainment. I love rural life but would prefer to have some adult night time entertainment locally to avoid the long drive to Tucson. Entertainment that is more than eating and drinking. Need to have an education program to train the unemployed or those seeking to advance themselves, esp those on lower incomes. A free program to develop job skills or a loan type program. Volunteers could also teach. Need an initiative to implement free county wide wi-fi access for residents. And internet access for seniors, disabled or poor. County needs to solicit input from all the Strategic Planners living in or working here in the area, An Executive group experienced in planning and Six Sigma Quality (performance metrics to evaluate progress toward goals).

#5 should have an "I don't know" button because I don't know. The plan hasn't been advertised. No mailing was sent to tell me it was there, I just happened to read an article in the Herald (which is no NY Times!) about it. And the link they (Herald) provided doesn't work so I still haven't seen it. If it's that important to us then instead of complaining that nobody has commented, maybe the county should send us all copies of the draft with a SASE to provide comments back. There are 132k people in Cochise. Telling 4000 of your friends just isn't going to cut it.

The plan lacks specificity. It is not a plan, but it is a statement of philosophy. There is nothing to approve or disapprove. Even the statements regarding federal lands and the county's relationship are pie-in-the-sky, as the feds can do as they wish and completely disregard the desires of the County.

Long documents online can be tiring to read onscreen. Prefer paper copy, but what i read of the beginning of the document reflects my interests. Regarding survey question #3: my interest is quality not quantity. All County towns are run-down in varying number of sections, rehab these; the current footprint needs to be upgraded and fully occupied, not just a new building two blocks away..GO FOR QUALITY IMPROVEMENTS WITHIN CURRENT FOOTPRINTS OF cities, communities. Many commercial areas everywhere are too worn looking and dated, Palominas is an example; for tourism to increase as revenue-producing the County can remain Western and quaint but needs some class.

Dear Sirs, Based upon skimming the plan, I am providing the following comments: 1. Right-of-Way Acquisition: suggest that you might want to develop a map that displayed all of the roads where the County had right-of-way acquisition issues (idea added here - and maybe color code by the status of where the County is at in the process of resolving or of the importance of resolving the issue) with the appropriate supporting descriptive information. I said how can you manage something if you don't really know what you have as an issue? 2. Better Tourism Data: Since this planning process will involve costs and benefits and this will be a recurring issue in the future, it is important to develop agreed upon measures of tourism. Otherwise, in the case of biking and hiking activity, for example, all you will have is fragmentary, subjective data that will not assist in the development of creditable benefit data. 3. Enhanced Zoning Processes - Access: The zoning/plat process should be enhanced so that new developments must have a plan to grant access to adjacent public lands. Especially if those lands have existing and/or potential recreational uses. An example is the new development that was going in on the North side of the Whetstones. After much public input the developer agreed to maintaining access to the Sierra Vista Ranger District's (SVRD) Whetstone section of the Coronado National Forest (CNF). Why does the County and its citizens have to go through such a lengthy process again? It would be much more efficient and probably less controversial if the proper consideration of access to public lands was a standard part of the zoning/plat process. 4. Enhanced Zoning Processes – Biking/Hiking/Recreational Features: Biking, hiking and other recreational features must be considered and included in the zoning/plat process for new or enhanced developments. Examples of this include, parking area for access to adjacent public land trail for hikers, mountain bikers and equestrians; multi-use and/or shared use paths in new or existing developments that link up to their external counterparts, if any. 5. Recognized Biking, Hiking, and Recreational Path Standards/Guidelines: The County should review the existing standards/guidelines and modify them to support this County's environment. Some roads seem to have wide shoulders while others have no shoulder – what should the County standards be, then enhance standards to County roadway guidance. 6. Recreational Corridor Along Unused Railroad Bed Right-of-Ways: The County has many railroad beds that are no longer used that could become excellent multi-use and/or shared use trails. For example the railroad bed that went along the San Pedro through the San Pedro Riparian National Conservation Area (SPRNCA) and possibly other Bureau of Land Management (BLM) lands, as well as private lands in the County. The County would have to coordinate with various agencies and private landowners to achieve and could use grants and other funding sources (e.g., Rails to Trails) to fund. During the meeting a map of railroads was presented, which I mention might be inaccurate. I had been told by a knowledgeable friend that the railroad bed through the SPRNCA had not been abandoned, but was still owned by a railroad company. Consequently, the definition of abandoned might need clarification or the designation changed, as abandoned has ownership implications that might not be true in the case of the SPRNCA railroad bed. 7. General Support for Access to Public Lands: Besides the enhanced zoning process involving access to public lands, there needs to be general County support for maintaining (and/or gaining) access to adjacent public lands. Especially if those lands have existing and/or potential recreational uses. Some of these links through private lands had been clarified, but most had not. As population pressures increase (e.g., increased use of roads through private lands) or for other reasons, private land owners could want to change/close usage to the roads through their lands to public lands. The County should help with this clarification process, for instance, to help ensure access to adjacent public lands. The County would not necessarily have to use County funds to achieve an access agreement with a private land owner. The Arizona Game and Fish Dept. has a program called Landowner Relations Program. It includes funding to support wildlife habitat, conservation, and public access. The County cannot access funds per se but can ask the Game and Fish Dept. to help as a partner to acquire public access to public lands through private or state trust lands. Typically, the private landowners must be willing to participate in the Landowner Relations Program and are provided assistance or help with projects in exchange for public access through their land. This program could be used for the CNF Douglas Ranger District's Skeleton Canyon (provides access to Geronimo Surrender Site, which is currently blocked to tourists and County residents) where the Dept. could be willing to seek access to that area if there are willing landowners who will cooperate – that is where the County could come in to help facilitate the cooperation of the landowners while working with the Arizona Game and Fish Dept. and other stakeholders. 8. Link Forest Service Trails Through County Property and Assist with Access Through Private Lands: Suggest the goal be extended to the County assisting with access through private lands, as was raised earlier with roads through private lands. Sincerely, Steven Scheumann

As part of a more comprehensive Transportation element of the County's Plan, we should address other means of transportation outside of automotive. The transportation element should address regional and local airports and their growth. The potential for rail travel from/to Cochise county and alternative means of transportation like cycling, A Master Plan of Bike ways for the County would be a good start. Advocating for growth in only the developed areas like municipalities in Cochise County is a dead end. The county would have little or no say as the cities only develop growth policies based on their citizens which is only one segment of the Cochise county population. There should be more regional & city/county planning coordination than there is now.

Transportation is a vital path for any growth and we are lacking in this area. We need to be forward thinking for the future for high speed transportation that will interconnect with major cities. Second we need to ensure our water source for the future. Third we need to ensure best education system in the nation and to do this we need to make sure the county has a plan that is the path to success. If we do these three things everything else will follow: i.e. Business, engineering and clean manufacturing. These are the area we need to concentrate our efforts.

Has the time come, given our rural nature which is a disadvantage when it comes to funding infrastructure to consider road frontage as a separate taxable element of annual property taxes? For example, we both have property valued at, say, $300K and you have a 1000 feet of county road frontage and I have, say, 100 feet, the cost to maintain the 1000 feet is ten times the cost of the 100 feet; road repair and maintenance is not insignificant annual county budget expense. I don't know the answer but is it worth thinking about?
7/31/2014 4:49 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

I suggest that new billboards (multi-purpose commercial signs that advertise for off-site businesses) be prohibited not just discouraged. I also suggest a ban, in rural, non commercial areas, of ALL dusk to dawn lighting. I think only motion-sensor controlled lights should be permissible in rural residential areas.
7/31/2014 12:56 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

Don't think you are being aggressive enough in your vision and plan; when watered down, they do little to inspire or encourage desired behaviors. For example, Love the addition on dark skies, under the goal "Goal: Preserve the dark night skies of the County, to the greatest extent possible." However even that goal is wishy washy; the goal should be to preserve the dark skies. It goes without saying that some accommodations will be made, but when you add a qualifier like you did, you diminish the intent and lessen the resolve to get there.
7/31/2014 12:13 PM View respondent's answers Categorize as... α

I am very pleased to see the inclusion of dark night skies as a part of the rural character element. Unplanned growth or unmananged growth is probably best (or worst) represented by legal lot splits that avoid the subdivision process. This is not a good situation and apparently Cochise County may be the only county in AZ with no process for review of lot splits. Fixing that could be a positive step. The plan language that is hostile to wilderness and ACEC designations does not seem to properly address the concern expressed by citizens regarding loss of wildlife habitat. The county should engage with AGFD to identify wildlife corridors and linkages and then work to protect the habitat, not continuing to waste our tax dollars in fighting the science.
