Thank you for taking the time to learn about and consider this proposal. If you would like to support this special use permit involving a small cultivation area for medical cannabis, please sign in the below space to show your support for this project. This project will include the economic benefits previously mentioned, local hiring policies for cultivation staff and in the future other required services at the ranch, as well as charitable donations to the surrounding community, Cochise County, and the local school systems. Medical extracts will be donated to those most in need of medical assistance including veterans, low income patients, and children within the medical program. We look forward to working closely with the Pearce-Sunsites community and Cochise County to bring these economic benefits listed above which will be facilitated through the approval of a special use permit to cultivate medical cannabis on a small portion of the total acreage currently owned by the Sunglow Ranch estate.

You are also welcome to contact Cochise County Planning and Zoning directly to voice your opinion on this project through Jesse Drake, Planning Manager, at 520-432-9300 or JDrake@cochise.az.gov by referencing Sunglow or SU-16-05.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about and consider this proposal. If you would like to support this special use permit involving a small cultivation area for medical cannabis, please sign in the below space to show your support for this project. This project will include the economic benefits previously mentioned, local hiring policies for cultivation staff and in the future other required services at the ranch, as well as charitable donations to the surrounding community, Cochise County, and the local school systems. Medical extracts will be donated to those most in need of medical assistance including veterans, low income patients, and children within the medical program. We look forward to working closely with the Pearce-Sunsites community and Cochise County to bring these economic benefits listed above which will be facilitated through the approval of a special use permit to cultivate medical cannabis on a small portion of the total acreage currently owned by the Sunslow Ranch estate.

You are also welcome to contact Cochise County Planning and Zoning directly to voice your opinion on this project through Jesse Drake, Planning Manager, at 520-432-9300 or JDrake@cochise.az.gov by referencing Sunslow or SU-16-05.

If you would like to support this special use permit involving a small cultivation area for medical cannabis, please sign in the below space to show your support for this project. This project will include the economic benefits previously mentioned, local hiring policies for cultivation staff and in the future other required services at the ranch, as well as charitable donations to the surrounding community, Cochise County, and the local school systems. Medical extracts will be donated to those most in need of medical assistance including veterans, low income patients, and children within the medical program. We look forward to working closely with the Pearce-Sunsites community and Cochise County to bring these economic benefits listed above which will be facilitated through the approval of a special use permit to cultivate medical cannabis on a small portion of the total acreage currently owned by the Sunglow Ranch estate.

You are also welcome to contact Cochise County Planning and Zoning directly to voice your opinion on this project through Jesse Drake, Planning Manager, at 520-432-9300 or JDrake@cochise.az.gov by referencing Sunglow or SU-16-05.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about and consider this proposal. If you would like to support this special use permit involving a small cultivation area for medical cannabis, please sign in the below space to show your support for this project. This project will include the economic benefits previously mentioned, local hiring policies for cultivation staff and in the future other required services at the ranch, as well as charitable donations to the surrounding community, Cochise County, and the local school systems. Medical extracts will be donated to those most in need of medical assistance including veterans, low income patients, and children within the medical program. We look forward to working closely with the Pearce-Sunsites community and Cochise County to bring these economic benefits listed above which will be facilitated through the approval of a special use permit to cultivate medical cannabis on a small portion of the total acreage currently owned by the Sunglow Ranch estate.

You are also welcome to contact Cochise County Planning and Zoning directly to voice your opinion on this project through Jesse Drake, Planning Manager, at 520-432-9300 or JDrake@cochise.az.gov by referencing Sunglow or SU-16-05.
