

Office of the Sheriff Cochise County Detention Division

Kenneth E. Bradshaw
Jail Commander

General Rules:

Participation in video-visitation is a privilege, not a right. Both visitor and inmate are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate fashion at all times during a video visit.

COCHISE COUNTY JAIL reserves the right to deny, cancel or terminate a video visit prior to or during a video session based upon visitor or resident inmate misconduct. COCHISE COUNTY JAIL also reserves the right to restrict visitor from participating in all future use of the system.

Attorney video visits will not be recorded or monitored.

All family member/friend video visits are recorded and subject to electronic monitoring by COCHISE COUNTY JAIL personnel. Your use of this video visitation system constitutes consent to this recording and monitoring.

Visitation Center

Each inmate is allowed only two (20-minute) visits per week and not more than one 20 minute on-site visit per day; on-site visits are free of charge.

At-home visits are unlimited during the allotted scheduled hours; applicable fees apply.

An inmate will be allowed a total of three visitors per visit (including children).

Children under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult.

Visitors under the influence of alcohol or other substance, including intoxicants, stimulants, or depressants shall be denied access to the visitation center.

Visitors and inmates will address all staff in an acceptable manner; any disrespect, misconduct or disruptive behavior will result in the visit being terminated and possible suspension of future visitation privileges.

Children may not be left unattended by an adult while on county property, to include parking lots, approach walks, lobby area, rest rooms and any visitation area.

Unacceptable attire:

- No shoes (does not apply to carried infants);
- No shirt;
- Clothing that exposes or overtly accentuates the body (e.g., low cut blouses, “spaghetti straps”, tube tops, strapless or backless blouses or shirts, skirts shorter than mid-thigh, “short shorts”, bare midriffs, tight clothing, spandex, clothing that is torn, tank tops – both male and females);
- Clothing with gang, or graphically explicit signs, designs, pictures or sayings;
- Clothing with spikes, or any metal;
- Jewelry with protruding metal or gang emblems; and
- Hats, bandanas, caps, stocking caps on the head (Religious attire, to include headwear shall be allowed in the visitation center; baseball caps, hats and/or cowboy hats are not classified as religious headwear).

Visitation Rules and Regulations (on-site and at-home):

Visitation privileges may be terminated or suspended for but not limited to any of the following reasons:

1. Possessing or attempting to bring in or pass contraband;
2. Inciting or encouraging violence;
3. Outstanding warrant for visitor;
4. Court order or County Attorney order prohibiting contact between the parties;
5. Suggestive or lewd behavior, including disrobing, opening shirts, blouses or trousers, any violation of dress code or any other type of indecent exposure or behavior, to include any discussions/actions involving graphic, detailed descriptions/actions of sex/sexual acts;
6. Request of the inmate;
7. Temporary restriction of inmate’s visitation privileges;
8. Unacceptable or unverifiable visitor ID;
9. Inability or refusal to control children that are creating disruptive and/or excessive noise or behavioral disturbance;
10. Creating excessive noise or a behavioral disturbance;
11. Only one inmate is authorized to sit during a video visit; inmates may not switch places during a visit; 3rd party inmates may not join visitation sessions.
12. When the visitor leaves the visitation area, the visit is considered terminated.

Arizona Revised Statutes 31-130 Destruction of or injury to public jail; classification

A person who intentionally and without lawful authority breaks, pulls down or otherwise destroys or injures a public jail or other place of confinement is guilty of a class 5 felony.

- Any damage to a public visitation terminal may result in criminal charges.
- Any damage to an institutional visitation terminal may result in criminal charges.
- Any damage to an institutional visitation terminal will result in the suspension of visitation privileges for that housing unit.
